The S&P 500 Index is a broadly based unmanaged composite of 500 stocks which is widely recognized as representative of price changes for the U.S. equity market in general. You cannot invest directly in a specific index.

Free Cash Flow is a measure of financial performance calculated as operating cash flow minus capital expenditures. Free cash flow (FCF) represents the cash that a company is able to generate after laying out the money required to maintain or expand its asset base.

The Price-to-Earnings Ratio or P/E ratio is a ratio for valuing a company that measures its current share price relative to its per-share earnings.

Earnings growth for a Fund holding does not guarantee a corresponding increase in market value of the holding or the Fund.

Mutual fund investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. Small and medium capitalization companies tend to have limited liquidity and greater price volatility than large-capitalization companies. Investments in debt securities typically decrease in value when interest rates rise. This risk is usually greater for longer-term debt securities. The Fund invests in foreign securities which involve political, economic and currency risks, greater volatility and differences in accounting methods.

While the fund is no-load, management fees and other expenses still apply.

Review of 2020 and Outlook for 2021

U.S. stocks recorded positive returns on balance in 2020, which ended up as one of the most volatile on record.

The year saw the fastest large decline for stock prices in U.S. history, as the S&P 500 fell 35% in the 23 trading days between February 19 (which saw the S&P 500 set an all-time high at 3,386) and March 23 (which proved to be the low S&P 500 close for 2020 at 2,237). From the March 23 low, the S&P 500 advanced 68%, to close the year at a new all-time high level of 3,756, resulting in a total return for the Index of 18.40%.

The strong performance of stocks stood in stark contrast to the headlines across the year, which included the onset of a global pandemic, rising Coronavirus cases throughout the year, a global recession brought on by efforts to mitigate the effects of the pandemic through physically distancing, and in the U.S., a sharp rise in social unrest and a rancorous election cycle.

We believe several factors contributed to the stock market's advance in 2020, notwithstanding troubling and deteriorating headlines over the course of the year:

1. The Federal Reserve and Congress acted quickly to provide liquidity and support to individuals and businesses at the outset of the pandemic in the U.S.
2. The Fed continued to work proactively throughout the year, resulting in excess liquidity, some of which found its way into equities. The Fed also actively supported trading the credit markets.
3. Interest rates dropped to historically low levels, supporting rising valuations for equity securities.

4. The sharp stock market decline in February-March created a disconnect between stock prices in the moment and longer-term valuations for companies; investors with long-term investment horizons were willing to deploy capital during the decline, anticipating an eventual economic recovery and normalization of corporate profits.
5. Actual corporate financial performance after the onset of the pandemic was not as nearly as bad as initially feared. At the outset of the pandemic the economy was brought to a full stop (in order to mitigate the effects of the virus), which caused an immediate recession; positive surprises for both revenues and earnings predominated over the course of the second and third quarter earnings reporting periods.

In 2020, as was the case in 2019, investors accorded higher equity valuations to stocks over the course of the year. The S&P 500 began the year at 3,231, trading at 18.0x estimated 2020 earnings of $180 per share; the S&P 500 ended 2020 at 3,756, trading at 22.8x estimated 2021 earnings of $165 per share.

We believe the expansion in equity valuations during 2020 was justified given the ongoing decline in interest rates to historically low levels. In 2019, the yield on the ten-year Treasury fell from 2.69% to 1.92%, while the one-year forward P/E on the S&P expanded from 14.3x to 18.0x; in 2020, the yield on the ten-year Treasury fell from 1.92% to 0.92%, in part driving an expansion in the one year forward S&P 500 P/E from 18.0x to 22.8x.

In our view, the expansion in equity valuations during 2020 was warranted, given the historically low level of interest rates. The ten-year Treasury yield of 0.92% at its year-end 2020 close stood well below its average yield over the past decade (2.16%). Lower interest rates, in our view, materially increase the value of future cash flows for shareholders in high quality publicly traded businesses; further, the earnings yield spread of the S&P 500 to the ten-year Treasury yield ended 2020 at 346 basis points (3.46%), well above long-term average for that relationship.

While stock prices ended 2020 at all-time highs, valuations, while higher than average, and stretched from late 2018 levels, remain below prior stock market peaks. The S&P 500 reached 28x estimated 2000 earnings in late 1999, with the ten-year Treasury yielding 6%; at present, the S&P 500 trades at 23x estimated 2021 earnings with the ten-year Treasury yield at 1%. In our view, stocks are not cheap, but they are not overvalued given our expectation of continued earnings recovery over the next several years, and a low interest rate environment.

Our outlook for 2021 and beyond is constructive. Our constructive stance is based on an expectation of a continuation of the economic recovery that started in the middle of the second quarter of 2020, but our view is tempered by several risks, including: 1) the fact that equity valuations are higher than average on an absolute basis (the strong rebound in stock prices in late 2020 may have already discounted much of the economic growth that lies ahead), 2) the fact that pandemic continues to spread, causing continued damage to society and the global economy, and 3) the potential for higher taxes as part of the Biden Administration's policy agenda.

We expect corporate earnings to improve on balance over the course of 2021, and we expect an eventual normalization of economic conditions and capital markets volatility and valuations. Given the uncharted nature of the pandemic and the recession, we expect higher than normal levels of capital markets volatility for the foreseeable future.

We have established a 2021 year-end fair value range of 3,600-3,900 for the S&P 500 (22x estimated 2021 earnings of $165-175). Our preliminary year-end 2022 fair value range is 4,050-4,400 (22x estimated 2022 earnings of $185-200). Our single point year-end fair value estimates for 2021 and 2022 are 3,900 and 4,100, respectively.

We expect equity market volatility to remain relatively high in 2021, and we would not be surprised if stocks traded 20-25% below and above the 2020 year-end level of the S&P 500 of 3,756 during the upcoming year.

While we expect 2021 to be volatile and challenging, we are constructive on the long-term outlook for equities in general given the level of current equity valuations and interest rates, and our expectation that long-term corporate earnings growth will be positive, and that over the next several years, the economy recovers and normalizes from the damage inflicted by the pandemic.

Our Portfolio

The Fund's portfolio continues to be comprised primarily of companies with strong balance sheets, high levels of profitability, and a demonstrated ability to grow business value over the long-term despite periodically challenging economic conditions.

The Fund's ten largest individual stock holdings as of December 31, 2020:

Apple	10.01%
MasterCard	7.93
Amazon	6.83
Alphabet, Inc.	5.88
Microsoft	4.85
Visa	3.67
Paypal	3.44
Blackrock	3.02
Adobe	2.52
Facebook	2.52

The following table summarizes the changes we made in the Fund in 2020:

NEW BUYS:	ADDS:	TRIMS:	SELLS:
BWX	Adobe	Apple	Ameriprise
Technologies	Alcon	Booking Holdings	Boeing
Casey's	Autodesk	Chevron	Capital One

Terminix	Salesforce		Mid-Cap ETF
	SVB Financial		iShares Core S&P
	Transunion		Small-Cap ETF

The companies that were the most additive to the Fund's return in 2020 included Apple, Amazon, PayPal, Microsoft, MasterCard, and Nvidia.

The companies that were the largest drag on performance in 2020 included Wells Fargo, Capital One, Continental Resources, and Delta Air Lines.

We believe the Fund's holdings are both 1) well-positioned to grow their business value over the next several years, and 2) valued at levels that are reasonably attractive over the long run given our assessment of their long-term business value growth potential.

From a valuation standpoint, we believe the Fund's holdings are attractively valued looking out over the next several years. At present, the Fund's portfolio trades at 36x estimated 2021 earnings and 28x estimated 2022 earnings, with a projected long-term annual earnings growth of 10-14%, which compares with the 23x 2021 P/E, 18x 2022 P/E, and 5-6% long term annual earnings growth projected for the S&P 500.

Investment Philosophy and Process

We continue to rely on our investment philosophy and investment process to provide a framework for our portfolio management of the Fund. Strong investment process is critical always, but especially within the context of challenging and volatile capital markets conditions.

Our investment philosophy is based on the notion that long-term investment in high quality, structurally advantaged businesses that are well-managed and that have opportunities for significant business value growth can provide shareholders with satisfactory long-term returns. We expect that over time, business value growth and share price performance should approximate each other: we seek to derive our investment return over the long run from being business owners, not from the fact that the businesses that we own are traded in the public equity market. We are "business dependent" for return, not "stock market dependent."

We seek to effectuate our investment philosophy through our investment process, which entails three core elements: quality (the higher the better), growth (the faster and more consistent, the better), and valuation (the lower the better, given the first two considerations).

We seek to own high quality businesses that have durable structural or competitive advantage, because we believe that high quality businesses with competitive advantage can deliver attractive returns over time, given a demonstrated ability to successfully exploit their competitive advantage.

We seek businesses that have significant long-term opportunities to grow, and a demonstrated ability to effectively convert growth opportunities into rising free cash flows over time.

Finally, we apply rigorous approaches to valuation in order to identify companies that are priced attractively from a long-term perspective given the quality of their franchise and the size of their business growth opportunities.

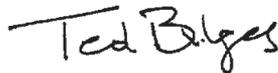

Our primary investment goal is to identify and own companies that have strong franchise characteristics and attractive valuation metrics, such that the business value growth that our companies generate over the long-term leads to positive shareholder returns. A long time horizon is critical to our approach, because it allows sufficient opportunity for our companies to compound business value at attractive rates, such that share price can appropriately reflect growth in underlying business value.

Over time, we expect to benefit from our investment approach in two ways: 1) from an improvement in valuation, as our companies move from being undervalued relative to our appraisal of fair value toward our estimate of fair value (positive change in valuation), and 2) from the growth in our companies' underlying business value over time, which is driven by increasing revenues, earnings, dividends, and free cash flow.

We believe that our investment approach should be effective over the long run, as stock prices tend to track underlying changes in business value over time. Periods of broad stock market weakness create opportunities for us to identify attractive new equity investment candidates, and/or to add to existing holdings at attractive valuation levels.

We are very grateful for your continued investment in Bridges Investment Fund.

Sincerely,

BRIDGES INVESTMENT FUND, INC.

EXPENSE EXAMPLE

DECEMBER 31, 2020

(Unaudited)

As a shareholder of the Bridges Investment Fund, Inc., you incur ongoing costs, including management fees; services fees; and other Fund expenses. This example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Fund and to compare costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds.

The Example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held the entire period (July 1, 2020 - December 31, 2020).

ACTUAL EXPENSES

The first line of the table below provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. Although the Fund charges no sales load or transactions fees, you will be assessed fees for outgoing wire transfers (including redemption requests), returned checks or stop payment orders at prevailing rates charged by U.S. Bank Global Fund Services, the Fund's transfer agent. To the extent that the Fund invests in shares of other investment companies as part of its investment strategy, you will indirectly bear your proportionate share of any fees and expenses charged by the underlying funds in which a Fund invests in addition to the expenses of the Fund. Actual expenses of the underlying funds are expected to vary among the various underlying funds. These expenses are not included in the example below. The example includes, but is not limited to, management fees, shareholder servicing fees, fund accounting, custody and transfer agent fees. However, the example below does not include portfolio trading commissions and related expenses, interest expense or dividends on short positions taken by the Fund and other extraordinary expenses as determined under generally accepted accounting principles. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During Period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

HYPOTHETICAL EXAMPLE FOR COMPARISON PURPOSES

The second line of the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund's actual expense ratios and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as sales charges (loads), redemption fees, or exchange fees. Therefore, the second line of the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2020

(1) SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Bridges Investment Fund, Inc. (the “Fund”) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as a diversified, open-end management investment company. The primary investment objective of the Fund is long-term capital appreciation. In pursuit of that objective, the Fund invests primarily in common stocks. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements. The policies are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”). The Fund is an investment company and accordingly follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification Topic 946 Financial Services - Investment Companies.

A. Investments -

Security transactions are recorded on trade date. Dividend income is recognized on the ex-dividend date, and interest income is recognized on an accrual basis. Discount and premium on fixed income securities is accreted or amortized into interest income using the effective interest method. Withholding taxes on foreign dividends, if any, have been provided for in accordance with the Fund’s understanding of the applicable country’s tax rules and rates.

The net realized gain (loss) from the sales of securities is determined for income tax and accounting purposes on the basis of the cost of specific securities.

Securities owned are reflected in the accompanying Statement of Assets and Liabilities and the Schedule of Investments at fair value based on quoted market prices. Bonds and other fixed-income securities (other than repurchase agreements and demand notes) are valued using market quotations or a matrix method provided by an independent pricing service. Other securities traded on a national securities exchange are valued at the last reported sale price at the close of regular trading on each day the exchange is open for trading. Securities listed on the NASDAQ National Market System for which market quotations are readily available are valued using the NASDAQ Official Closing Price (“NOCP”). If no sales were reported on that day, quoted market price represents the closing bid price.

Investments in registered open-end management investment companies will be valued based upon the Net Asset Values (“NAVs”) of such investments and are categorized as Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

Securities for which prices are not readily available are valued by the Fund's valuation committee (the "Valuation Committee") at a fair value determined in good faith under procedures established by and under the general supervision of the Fund's Board of Directors (the "Board").

The Valuation Committee concludes that a price determined under the Fund's valuation procedures is not readily available if, among other things, the Valuation Committee believes that the value of the security might be materially affected by an intervening significant event. A significant event may be related to a single issuer, to an entire market sector, or to the entire market. These events may include, among other things: issuer-specific events including rating agency action, earnings announcements and corporate actions, significant fluctuations in domestic or foreign markets, natural disasters, armed conflicts, and government actions. In the event that the market quotations are not readily available, the fair value of such securities will be determined in good faith, taking into consideration: (i) fundamental analytical data relating to the investment; (ii) the nature and duration of restrictions on disposition of the securities; and (iii) an evaluation of the forces which influence the market in which these securities are purchased and sold. The members of the Valuation Committee shall continuously monitor for significant events that might necessitate the use of fair value procedures.

B. Federal Income Taxes -

It is the Fund's policy to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to Regulated Investment Companies ("RICs") to distribute all of its taxable income to shareholders. Therefore, no Federal income tax provision for the Fund is required. Under applicable foreign tax law, a withholding tax may be imposed on interest, dividends, and capital gains earned on foreign securities.

The character of distributions made during the year from net investment income or net realized gains may differ from its ultimate characterization for federal income tax purposes. In addition, due to the timing of dividend distributions, the fiscal year in which amounts are distributed may differ from the year that the income or realized gains or losses were recorded by the Fund. The Fund has reclassified the components of its capital accounts for the year ended December 31, 2020, by increasing total distributable earnings by $28,400 and decreasing capital stock by $28,400.

The Fund has not recorded any liability for material unrecognized tax benefits as of December 31, 2020. It is the Fund's policy to recognize accrued interest and penalties related to uncertain benefits in income tax expense as appropriate.

C. Distribution To Shareholders -

The Fund records and pays dividends to shareholders on a quarterly basis on the ex-dividend date. Distribution of net realized gains, if any, are recorded and made on an annual basis to shareholders on the ex-dividend date.

D. Use of Estimates -

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in Net Assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

E. Fair Value Measurements -

GAAP defines fair value as the price that a Fund would receive upon selling an investment in a timely transaction to an independent buyer in the principal or most advantageous market of the investment. A three-tier hierarchy is used to maximize the use of observable market data “inputs” and minimize the use of unobservable “inputs” and to establish classification of fair value measurements for disclosure purposes. Inputs refer broadly to the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk. Inputs may be observable or unobservable. Observable inputs are inputs that reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the reporting entity’s own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances. The three-tier hierarchy of inputs is summarized in the three broad Levels listed below:

Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical investments.

Level 2 - Observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These inputs may include quoted prices for the identical instrument on an inactive market, prices for similar instruments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, yield curves, default rates and similar data.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, to the extent relevant observable inputs are not available; representing the Fund’s own assumptions about the assumptions a market participant would use in valuing the asset or liability, and would be based on the best information available.

The valuation techniques used by the Fund to measure fair value for the year ended December 31, 2020, maximized the use of observable inputs and minimized the use of unobservable inputs. During the year ended December 31, 2020, no securities held by the Fund were deemed Level 3.

The following is a summary of the inputs used as of December 31, 2020, in valuing the Fund’s investments carried at fair value:

(2) INVESTMENT ADVISORY CONTRACT AND OTHER TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

Under an Investment Advisory Contract, Bridges Investment Management, Inc. (the “Investment Adviser”) furnishes investment advisory services for the Fund. In return, the Fund has agreed to pay the Investment Adviser a management fee computed on a quarterly basis at the rate of 1/8 of 1% of the average month-end net assets of the Fund during the quarter, equivalent to 1/2 of 1% per annum. Certain officers and directors of the Fund are also officers and directors of the Investment Adviser. These officers do not receive any compensation from the Fund other than that which is received indirectly through the Investment Adviser. For the year ended December 31, 2020, the Fund incurred $1,020,134 in advisory fees.

The contract between the Fund and the Investment Adviser provides that total expenses of the Fund in any year, exclusive of taxes, but including fees paid to the Investment Adviser, shall not exceed, in total, a maximum of 1 and 1/2% of the average month end net assets of the Fund for the year. Amounts, if any, expended in excess of this limitation are reimbursed by the Investment Adviser as specifically identified in the Investment Advisory Contract. There were no amounts reimbursed during the year ended December 31, 2020.

The Fund has entered into a Board-approved contract with the Investment Adviser in which the Investment Adviser acts as primary administrator to the Fund at an annual rate of $42,000, through quarterly payments of $10,500, and U.S. Bancorp Fund Services, LLC, doing business as U.S. Bank Global Fund Services, acts as sub-administrator to the Fund. These administrative expenses are shown as Administration fees on the Statement of Operations. As of December 31, 2020, $10,500 was due to the Investment Adviser for its services as primary administrator. This liability is included in the Accrued expenses on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES

INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT DISCLOSURE (Unaudited)

As required by the terms of the investment advisory agreement, the Fund's Independent Board members vote for the continuance of the agreement no less than annually. On May 19, 2020, the Fund's investment advisory agreement with BIM was approved by the Independent Board for a period commencing on July 31, 2020 through July 30, 2021.

In approving the continuance of the investment advisory agreement, the independent directors of the Fund were asked to take the following factors into consideration:

- The nature, extent, and quality of the services to be provided by the investment adviser;
- The comparative investment performance of the Fund and the investment adviser;
- The costs of the services to be provided and profits to be realized by the investment adviser and its affiliates from the relationship with the Fund;
- The extent to which economies of scale would be realized as the Fund grows;
- Whether the fee levels reflect these economies of scale for the benefit of Fund investors; and
- Whether the Board relied upon comparisons of the services to be rendered and the amounts to be paid under the Investment Advisory Contract with those under other similar investment advisory contracts.

With respect to BIM's financial resources, BIM provided the Fund's Board of Directors information showing (as of December 31, 2019) total assets of $27,712,100, no long-term debt, and total shareholders' equity of $23,056,219 with a current ratio (current assets to current liabilities) of 1.6x and an equity to total assets ratio of 83.20%.

The directors reviewed and focused on the Fund's past performance and operations in their evaluation and decision. Based on information gathered from a leading mutual fund evaluator, the Fund directors compared the Fund's performance criteria to funds with similar investment objectives. The total fund comparison universe varied depending on the time frame of the comparison and other investment parameters included, but with respect to funds with a growth investment objective, the Fund ranked, on percentile terms, in the 50th percentile over a trailing 12-month period, 85th over a 3-year period, 78th over a 5-year period, and 83rd over a 10-year period. (as of March 31, 2020)

The Fund directors reviewed the asset allocation of the Fund, including the percentage of Fund assets invested in stocks (96.58% as of March 31, 2020) cash and cash equivalents (3.42% as of March 31, 2020) and bonds (0.00% as of March 31, 2020). They also reviewed a number of current ratios for the Fund's portfolio, including the current price/earnings ratio of Fund stocks (20.6x as of March 31, 2020) price/cash flow ratio (15.4x) and price/book ratio (3.8x), as well as the Fund's turnover ratio, which was at 17.00% for the trailing twelve months, was still well below the average turnover ratio average of 59% for a comparison group of large cap growth funds. The directors also reviewed the Fund's expense ratio, which was 0.80% for the period ending March 31, 2020, compared to an average of 1.48% for a peer group of funds selected as the comparison group.

The Fund Board also reviewed the extent to which economies of scale would be realized as the Fund grows, and the expected impact of any growth in Fund assets on the Fund's fee structure, including fees and expenses which are not directly related to the size of the Fund, and provisions in agreements with service providers which carry a lower basis charge if the Fund asset base increases.

With respect to the Fund's compliance program, the Fund directors were provided information concerning both the historical practices to ensure compliance by Fund personnel, as well as current actions taken to strengthen the Fund's compliance structure.

The Board of Directors noted that Edson L. Bridges III has more than 37 years of experience with the Fund's portfolio and thus is very familiar with the Fund's history and operations. The Board of Directors further noted that Edson L. Bridges III has been responsible for the day-to-day management of the Fund's portfolio since April 11, 1997, with Brian Kirkpatrick as the back-up person in this position.

At each Board of Directors meeting since 1995, the Board has reviewed the brokerage commissions and fees paid with respect to all securities transactions undertaken for the Fund's portfolio during the prior three-month period for the cost efficiency of the services provided by the brokerage firms involved, all of which brokerage firms are non-affiliated with the Fund and BIM. The actions taken by Management with respect to portfolio transactions and commission levels have been approved by the Board of Directors.

As in the past the Fund's Board of Directors had reviewed the soft dollar practices of the Fund's advisor and the benefits that BIM and its clients may have received from the Fund's portfolio transactions under such arrangements, in May of 2019 the Board was advised that in early 2019 BIM had disbanded any soft dollar commission arrangements they held and were no longer in the practice of applying commission dollars to such arrangements.

The Board is responsible for managing the Fund's business affairs and for exercising all the Fund's powers except those reserved for the shareholders. The following tables give information about each Board member and the senior officers of the Fund. Where required, the tables separately list Board members who are "interested persons" of the Fund (i.e., "Interested" Board members) and those who are not (i.e., "Independent" Board members). In addition, the Fund's Statement of Additional Information includes additional information about Fund directors and is available, from the Fund's website at <http://www.bridgesfund.com> or by calling 1.800.939.8401.

Interested persons include a director or officer of the Fund who has a significant or material business or professional relationship with the Fund's investment adviser, Bridges Investment Management, Inc. Item 22(e)(4)

Liquidity Risk Management Program

The Fund has adopted and implemented a written liquidity risk management program as required by Rule 22e-4 (the “Liquidity Rule”) under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. The program is reasonably designed to assess and manage the Fund’s liquidity risk, taking into consideration, among other factors, the Fund’s investment strategy and the liquidity of its portfolio investments during normal and reasonably foreseeable stressed conditions; its short and long-term cash flow projections; and its cash holdings and access to other funding sources. The Board approved the appointment of a Liquidity Administrator Committee, which includes representatives from Bridges Investment Fund, Inc., the Fund’s investment adviser.

The Liquidity Administrator Committee is responsible for the program’s administration and oversight and for reporting to the Board on at least an annual basis regarding the program’s operation and effectiveness. The Liquidity Administrator Committee updated its assessment of the Fund’s liquidity risk profile, considering additional data gathered in the 10 months ended September 30, 2020 and the adequacy and effectiveness of the liquidity risk management program’s operations since its inception on May 14, 2019 (the “Review Period”) in order to prepare a written report for the Board (the “Report”) for consideration at its meeting held on November 17, 2020. The Report noted that during the Review Period the Fund did not experience unusual stress or disruption to its operations related to purchase and redemption activity. It further noted that during the Review Period the Fund held adequate levels of cash and highly liquid investments to meet shareholder redemption activities in accordance with applicable requirements. The Report concluded that (i) the Fund’s liquidity risk management program is reasonably designed to prevent violations of the Liquidity Rule and (ii) the Fund’s liquidity risk management program had been effectively implemented during the Review Period.

Item 22(b)(7)(i)

This item requires a discussion of those factors, including relevant market conditions and the investment strategies and techniques pursued by the Fund's investment adviser that materially affected the performance of the Fund during the most recently completed fiscal year. The investment performance for 2020, the most recently completed fiscal year, was a 26.44% total return with cash and capital gain distributions reinvested in shares of capital stock in the Fund.

The relevant market conditions and the investment strategies pursued by the Fund's investment adviser that materially affected the performance of the Fund during the most recently completed fiscal year are fully described on pages one through five of the Shareholder Letter, which is a part of the Annual Report.

Item 22(b)(7)(ii)

The Fund is required to provide a line graph comparing the initial account value and subsequent account values at the end of each of the most recently completed ten fiscal years of the Fund, assuming a $10,000 investment in the Fund at the beginning of the first fiscal year to the same investment over the same periods in an appropriate broad-based securities market index. In a table placed within or contiguous to the graph, the Fund's average annual total returns for the one, five, and ten-year periods ended on the last day of the most recent fiscal year, computed in accordance with applicable SEC regulations and guidelines, are provided.

This line graph appears on page MD&A-10. The information on the line graph is set forth without amplifying commentary. However, the interpretative discussion that precedes and follows in this section of the Annual Shareholder Report for 2020 is an integral part of the overall presentation concerning investment performance.

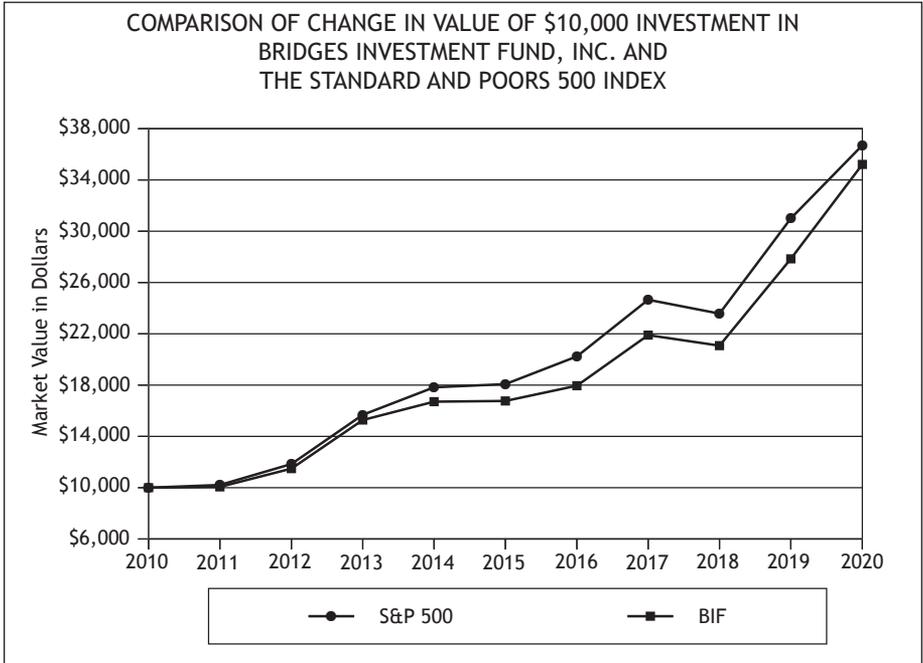

The assumptions for the preparation of data to compute performance for the Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Index and for Bridges Investment Fund, Inc., along with other items of information and analysis, appear on pages MD&A-11.

The Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Stock Index was chosen as the appropriate broad-based market index for comparison with our Fund for the purpose of benchmarking the results of a 100% common stock investment as an alternative to an investment in our Fund. Common stocks have ranged between 90.6% to 98.3% of total market value in the Fund's portfolio over the last decade. This observation means that our Fund's investment record in the typical year is unlikely to match, exactly, results of a securities investment in the Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Index because the same degree of risk/reward has not been assumed by the Fund. Nevertheless, the S&P 500 has the best data for tracking the general price trends for large capitalization and widely owned stocks; a representative list of which is held by our Fund.

INFORMATION SUPPORTING AND SETTING
QUALIFICATIONS FOR INVESTMENT RETURNS

Assumptions

1. The initial investment was made at the public offering price last calculated on the business day before the first day of the first fiscal year.
2. The subsequent account values are based on the net asset values of the Fund last calculated on the last business day of the first and each subsequent fiscal year.
3. The calculation for the final account value assumes the account was closed and the redemption was at the price last calculated on the last business day of the most recent fiscal year.
4. All dividends and capital gains distributions by the Fund were reinvested at the price on the reinvestment dates. The dividend for the Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Index for the previous quarter was invested at the month-end price closest to the reinvestment date for the Fund.

Appropriate Index

The Fund is to select an “appropriate broad-based securities market index” that is administered by an organization that is not an affiliated person of the Fund or its investment adviser. The securities index chosen must be adjusted to reflect reinvestment of dividends on securities in the index, but not the expenses of the Fund.

Use of Additional Indexes

The Fund does not utilize any other index outside of the S&P 500.

(information on the operation of the Public Reference Room may be obtained by calling 1-800-SEC-0330.) These reports can also be obtained from the Fund by sending an e-mail to fund@bridgesinv.com or calling 1-800-939-8401.

Item 22(d)(4) & (5)
